

2010 SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENTS:

Students must carefully read the following books before the first day of school.

Most are available at the school office

9 th	Everyone reads	To Kill a Mockingbird (H. Lee)
	Honors students also read	Great Expectations (Dickens)
10 th	Everyone reads	A Doll House (Ibsen)
	Honors students also read	All Quiet on the Western Front (Remarque)
11 th	Regular students read	The Great Gatsby (Fitzgerald)
	Honors students read only	The Scarlet Letter (Hawthorne)
		Grapes of Wrath (Steinbeck)
12 th	Everyone reads	Lord of the Flies (Golding)
	Honors students also read	Dubliners (Joyce)
	AP students also read	Tess of the D' Urbervilles (Hardy)
	• All 5 AP books are to have	Pygmalion (Shaw)
	a Response Paper as assigned	The Power and the Glory (Greene) and explained in the AP materials.

PMCA 2010-2011 LITERARY FORUM:

The PMCA Literary Forum is the English Department's response to students' desire for extra credit. Eight times a year teachers and students meet for a 90-minute session to discuss great literature. These are the titles we will be reading next year:

Month	Title	Author
September	Brave New World	Aldous Huxley
October	A Tale of Two Cities	Charles Dickens
November	O Pioneers	Willa Cather
January	Crime and Punishment	Fyodor Dostoyevsky
February	Poetry (Selected)	Alfred, Lord Tennyson
March	Midnight's Children	Salman Rushdie
April	Death of a Salesman	Arthur Miller
May	Oedipus the King	Sophocles