

PHILADELPHIA-MONTGOMERY CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

“But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ.” Philippians 3:7

Good morning, Phil-Mont! These are your announcements for Friday, February 3, 2012.

SPORTS

Boys JV Basketball vs. Plumstead; Home 5:30 PM
Boys Varsity Basketball vs. Plumstead; Home 7:00 PM

The Varsity Boys Basketball team visited The Christian Academy on Thursday and came home with a 64-39 win. The Falcons played an excellent team game at both ends of the floor to build a 21 point halftime lead which they never relinquished. With the win, the team has evened its record to 9-9 overall. The Falcons will meet Plumstead tonight at home. The players are looking forward to a loud and excited home crowd for this important league game.

Last night the boys JV Basketball team lost a hard-fought game against TCA. The team put forth a good effort, but fell short, 24-31, when the buzzer sounded to end the game. Please come cheer on the team tonight as we battle Plumstead Christian.

The season of adversity continued for the Lady Falcons last night, as the girls battled thru it in an overtime loss to Calvary. Kamryn was "Miss Clutch" at the free throw line, hitting the front end of a one and one to tie the game with 6 seconds to go. Jana battled thru another injury, Katharine handled the ball with increased poise and determination, Grace was a rock in the middle, distributing the ball, and shooting a perfect 2 for 2. Christina hit key buckets to keep us close, while Carly picked up the slack inside, grabbing 8 rebounds and scoring 8. Did you hug your Lady Falcon yesterday? Praise God with us for His presence thru the ups and downs, and the joy of playing for Him.

The MS Girls Basketball team battled a tough Calvary opponent in their best defensive showing of the year yesterday. The Falcons combined a tough man to man with a swarming half court trap to frustrate Calvary's players throughout the game. Tracey led the way on offense with 10 and Lauren added 6 points. Though they couldn't capture the victory, the whole team showed great improvement both offensively and defensively.

HIGH SCHOOL

Attention Sociology students: Due to problems with the Noodle Tools website, your citations due date has been moved to Monday, Feb 6. Should the problems persist, we may have to move them again. Your persuasive speeches will still be due as scheduled. See you 8th period. Mrs. Liegel

Photo Club meets today during first flex.

Round 1 of the chess tournament will begin today in Mr. Bierema's room during both flexes.

Improv Club meets today in the auditorium second flex.

Winter Play: No crew today - thanks!

Next month's Literary Forum is our annual Poetry Forum accenting the works of African-American Gwendolyn Brooks. You can get a poetry packet from your English teacher beginning next week.

Tonight! Music, lights and a great time! For only, $5, come out to the PMCA High School Winter Dance sponsored by the Senior class officers! Music by our very own "D.J. Stone." Get those dance contracts and guest permission slips in and join us from 8:30 to 10:30!

MIDDLE SCHOOL

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL