

Examples of Citations for a Works Cited or Work Consulted Document

A Works Cited document lists the sources you used within your report.

A Works Consulted document lists the sources you investigated before you wrote your report.

A source may be listed on both your Works Cited list and your Works Consulted list if, for instance, you are indicating that you are citing one article but consulted another in the same source.

Book with one author (citing the entire book) =

Doe, John D. Invertebrates Around Us. Philadelphia: Roarke, 2001.

Book with two authors (citing a basic section by indicating page numbers of section) =

Vasee, George M., and Ronnie W. Walrus. Sharks and Whales. 1990. 3rd ed. Philadelphia: Washington Lane, 2005. 125-137.

Book with editor but no author =

Setting a Proper Table. Ed. Carol A Fasstie. Glenside: Hills, 2003.

A Work in an Anthology =

Smith, Joan. "The Pleasure of Pizza." Fabulous Food Facts . Ed. Sean Cooper. Athens: Oxford UP, 1954. 67-77.

Encyclopedia article with no author noted =

"Squids." World Book Encyclopedia. 20th ed. Detroit: World Book, 2002. 235-237.

Encyclopedia article with author(s) noted =

Frame, David A, and Lisa M Picture. "Digital Photography." Encyclopedia of Photography. 2nd ed. Vol. 2. Ardsley: Veronica, 1982. 27-37.

Encyclopedia article from a CD-Rom =

"Scorpions." Encarta. CD_ROM. Microsoft. 4th ed. 2004.

Magazine article from a printed source =

Willikers, Mary G. "Amazing Alligators." Ranger Rick. November 2002: 32-33.

Journal or magazine article from website =

Shropshire, Benjamin W. "Blogs vs. Wikis." Technology Today (Nov. 2005). 25 Mar. 2006
<<http://techtoday.org/blogsvswikis>>.

Magazine article from a website with a specific path =

Flowers, Lilly. "The Olympic Swimming World Today." Sports Illustrated 18 July 1984: 120-5. 25 Mar. 2006 <<http://si.com/olympicswimmy>>. Path: articles; Olympic; swimming; recent.

Article from an online resource with a persistent URL =

Joe, Gustaitis. "Montgomery Bus Boycotts, and Rosa Parks, Remembered." The World Almanac and Book of Facts. 2005. The World Almanac Education Group. 25 Mar. 2006
<<http://www.worldalmanac.com/feature/feature1275.htm>>.

Source is a previously-published excerpt from a book that has been reprinted in a collection =

Basic, Laura M. "Teaching Made Easy!" Resources for Educators. 1973. 2nd ed. Pittsburgh: Candlestick, 1983. 25-35. Rpt. in Issues in Education. Ed. James M. Hurbert. 1st ed. Oxford: Hillsboro, 1993. 78-88.

Article from one of the online subscription databases from Power Library =

White, Ronald C. "Lincoln Speech." American History 56.5 (Oct. 2005): 68-68. MasterFILE Premier. EBSCO. Phil-Mont Christian Academy Lib., Erdenheim, PA. 25 Mar. 2006
<<http://search.epnet.com/>>.

There are many other types of sources other than the examples above. For information on formatting citations for other types of sources, use the resources available through NoodleTools (www.noodletools.com).